

Darts Night: Jimmy "Big Sticks" Hadfield

verses

The rest of the World

Monday 23rd August 21.00 in Goldmans Bar

Jimmy "Big Sticks" is actually my snooker name so that says how good I am at darts I never even managed to get a nickname. We will play a round the board, everybody who beats me wins a free bottle of becks at the bar. I ain't all that good and will have probably already had a warm drink to settle the nerves like all good dart players do so you have a good chance.

See you there!!!!
