It was here in Karlshorst where on the 8th of May 1945, War in Europe officially came to an end. Field Marshall Wilhelm Keitel officially signed the unconditional surrender of all German forces to representatives of the USSR, USA, Great Britain and France at 23:01 Central European time. The site also served as the Soviet occupation Army's Berlin HQ up until 1994. Outside there is still lots of old Soviet tanks and artillery pieces. Tickles your fancy? Places are limited so let the reception know if you are interested.

Your intrepid Circus receptionist "Jimbo" will come and help you to negotiate the Berlin public transport system in to deepest darkest East Berlin* and back again.

It was ages ago since your "intrepid receptionist" went there which may mean we walk the wrong way a little bit and have to turn back.
