

The Circus Hotel

The newest member of The Circus family, The Circus Hotel opened in October 2008 directly across the Rosenthaler Platz from The Circus Hostel. Continuing The Circus traditions of a friendly welcome to the city, the Hotel has been designed to reflect the company's ongoing commitments to hospitality, individuality and sustainability.

Each of the 64 rooms has a bathroom with rain shower, television, WiFi, telephone and a safe for valuables with integrated power outlet. Alongside this, every room has been individually designed and furnished by the interior designer Sandra Ernst.
